READ WHAT PRINCIPALS, TEACHERS & LIBRARIANS ARE SAYING!

Adam T. Newman's school visits are incredible! Adam hooks the students from the start and never lets up. His high energy performance engages students and teachers alike. If you are going to bring in ONE author to speak to your school this year, make it Adam T. Newman. I've seen Adam FOUR times and he always brings the fun!

Mark Grimans- Holy Redeemer Catholic School, Vice Principal

"Adam is not just a performer; he is an educator, role model, and motivator who inspires students to be the best versions of themselves. I highly recommend his assemblies to any elementary school looking for an engaging, uplifting program that leaves a lasting impression on both students and staff."

J. Shane Hagar Ed. D.- Rancho Mirage Elementary, Principal

"We loved having Author Adam T. Newman at our school! His passion is evident and he brings so much joy and excitement to our school. A must-have!"

Kimberly Scibetta- Chase Street Elementary, Librarian

Adam had such a wonderful message for the kids. I loved seeing how some of my avid (and shy) writers' faces lit up as he was talking today."

Cindy Evans- Walnut Grove Elementary, 3rd Grade Teacher

"Having Adam come to our school was a wonderful way to connect with our students and encourage them to be the best version of themselves. The students clearly enjoyed his visit and I have been receiving great feedback from the teachers as well!"

Carla Tengan- Oak View Elementary, Library Specialist

"A two-in-one author visit and performance by Adam T. Newman was enjoyed by both our students and staff! Adam engaged the whole cafeteria and got his audience so excited about reading and writing! His visit was a 110% success!"

Sarah Salnick- Belmont Elementary, Media Specialist

Adam's presentation was well put together and engaging for our kids. The energy was high throughout and the students could NOT get enough!

Kevin Lee- Stoddert Elementary, Librarian
